

THE KINGDOM GOSPEL

Market 70

Based on Kingdom Calling, Vocational Stewardship for the Common Good

By Amy L Sherman

Proverbs 11:10

- When the righteous prosper the city rejoices. When the wicked perish there are shouts of joy.

What does a rejoiced city look like?

- Justice
 - Rescue
 - Equity
 - Restoration
- Shalom: Peace with
 - God
 - Self
 - Others
 - Creation

Tension between the now and not yet Kingdom

- Waiting for the consummation
- Embodying and enacting foretastes

What do the righteous look like?

- UP

Godward Orientation · Humility · Eternal Perspective

- IN

Personal Holiness · Fruit of the Spirit · Openhandedness · Compassion for the hurting

- OUT

Social Justice

The Ekklesia

- The assembly at the outer gate – the Righteous
- Those called out to decide matters of the common welfare

Why we aren't the Righteous

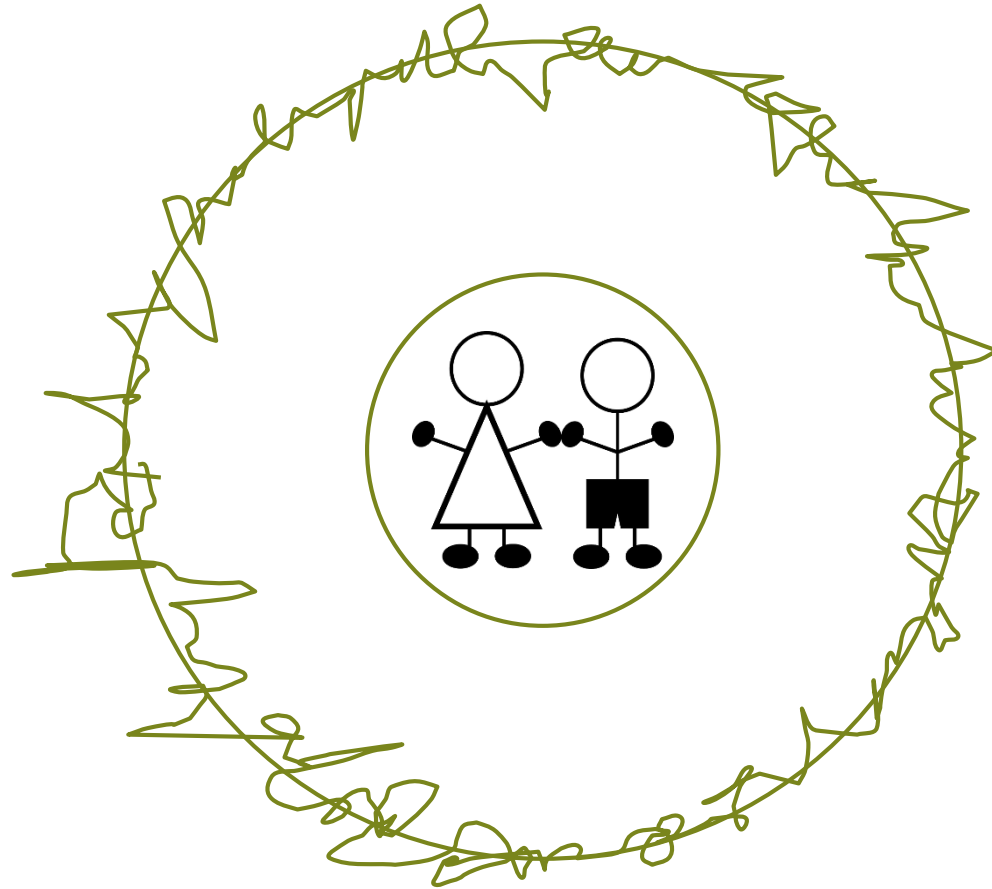

- The “Too Narrow” Gospel
- Inadequate Discipleship
- Inadequate View of Heaven

THE BIG STORY

James Choung

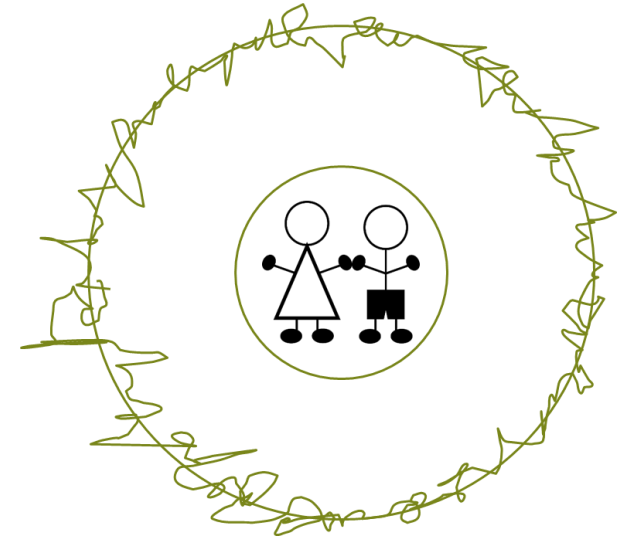

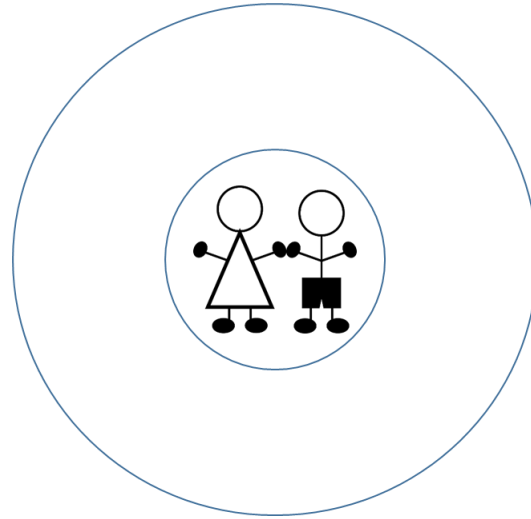

InterVarsity

The World Today

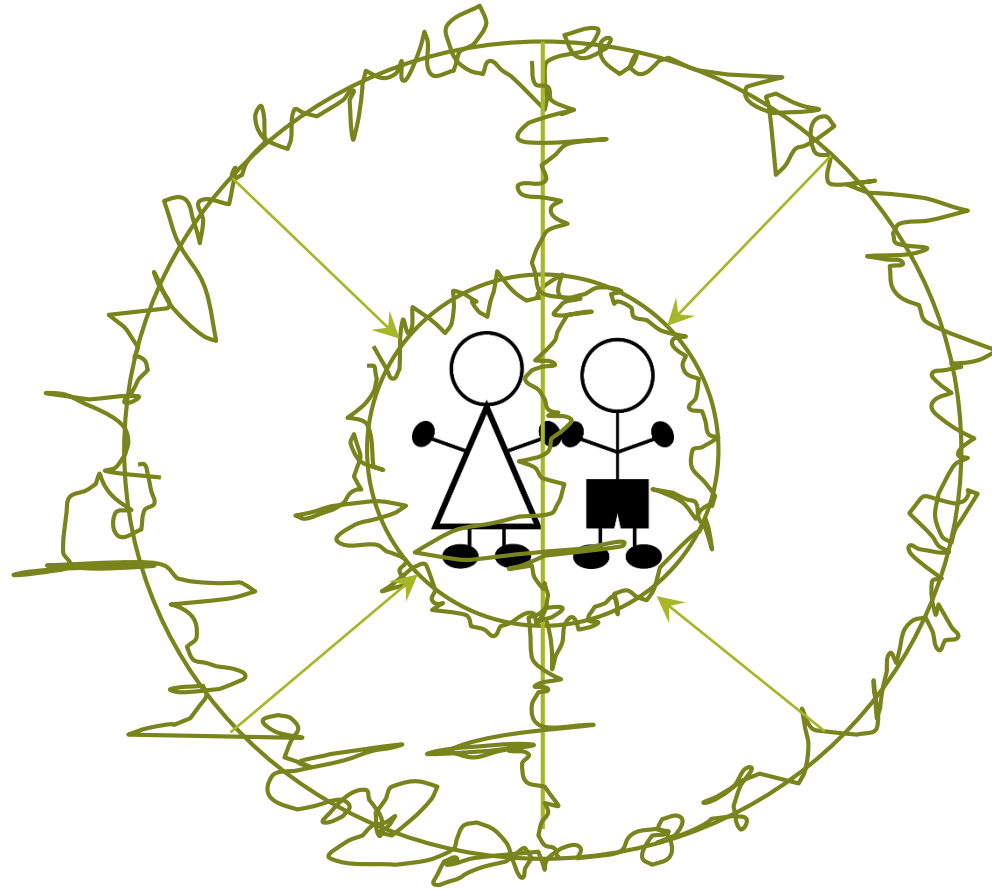

Designed for good

- Shalom
 - Beauty
 - Goodness
 - Harmony
- Peace with
 - God
 - Self
 - Others
 - Creation

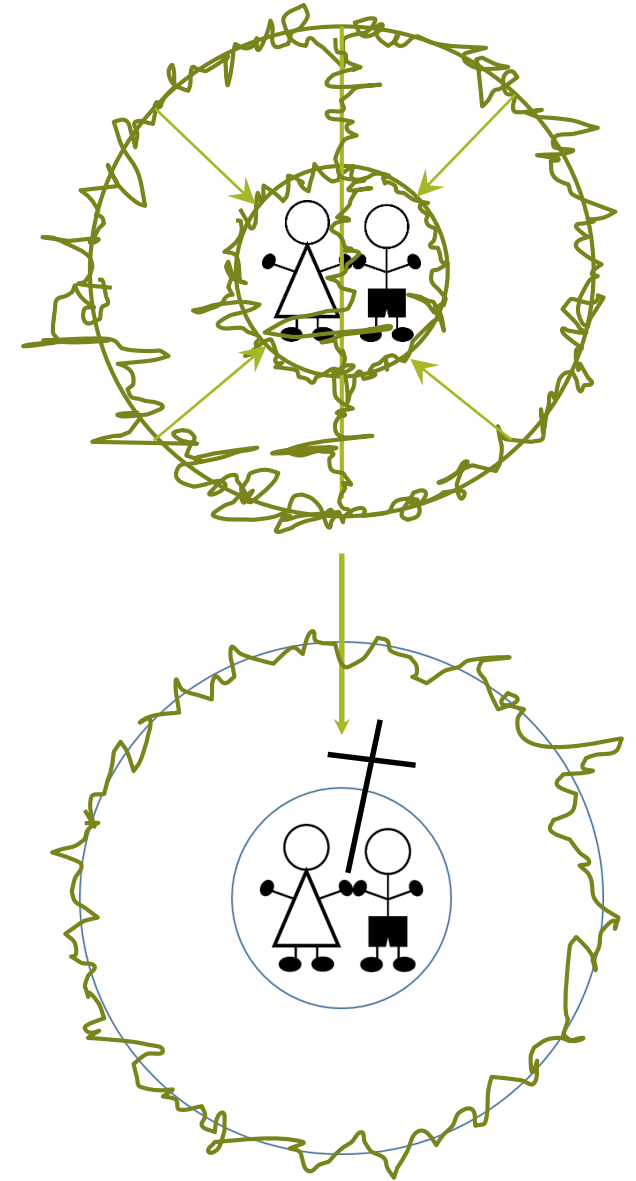

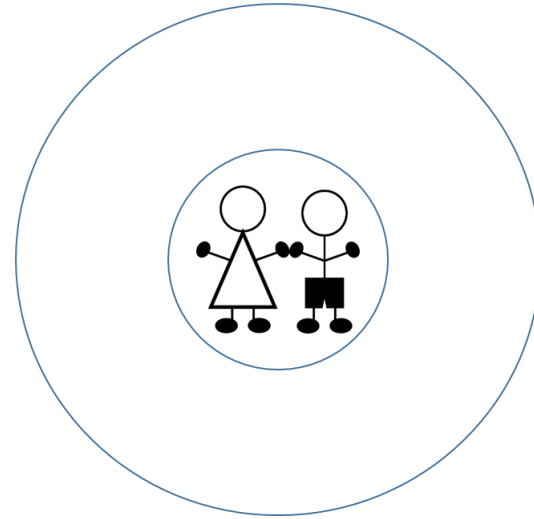

Damaged by Evil

- Evil and Sin
- Spoiling Peace with
 - God
 - Self
 - Others
 - Creation

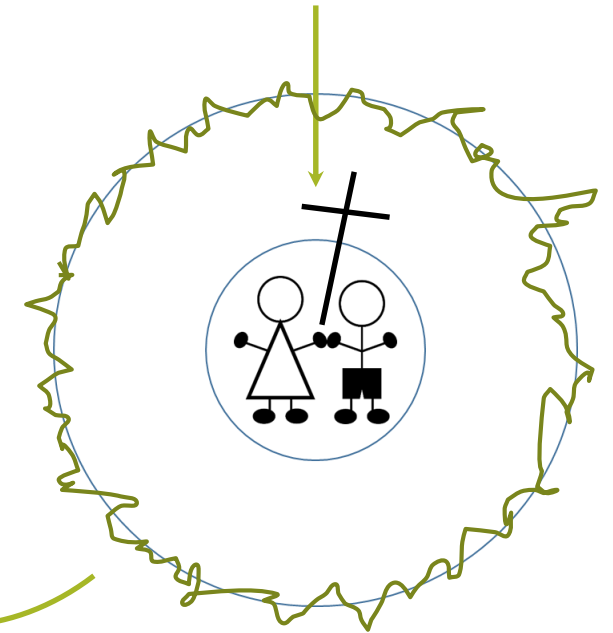

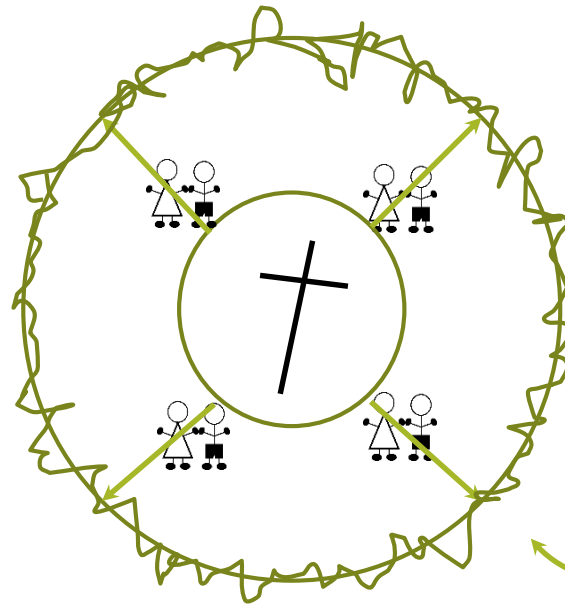

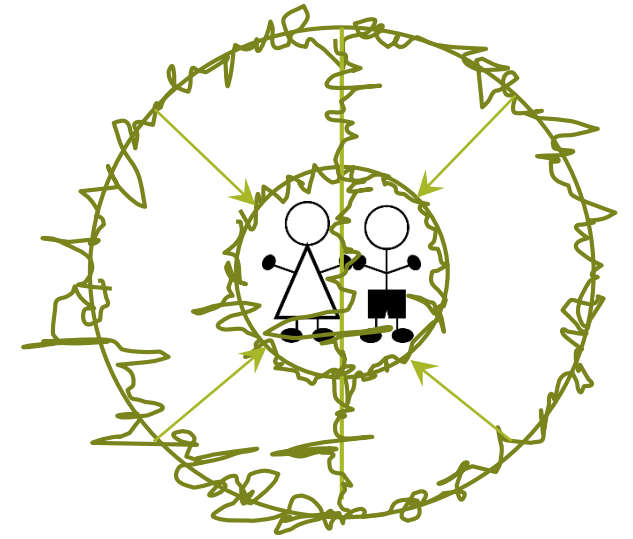

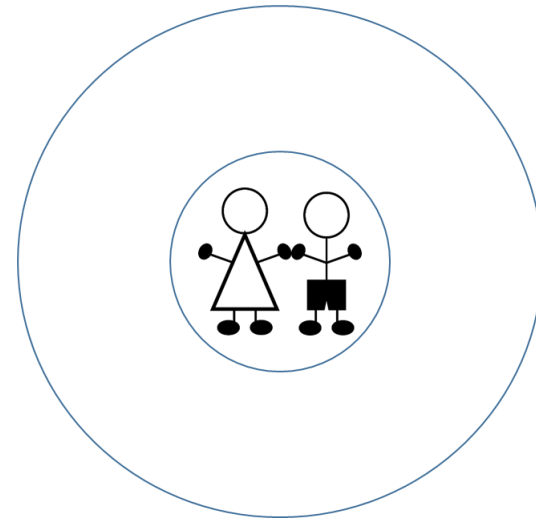

Restored for Better

- Inoculated against sin
- Resistance against evil
- Power to heal
- Authority to steward

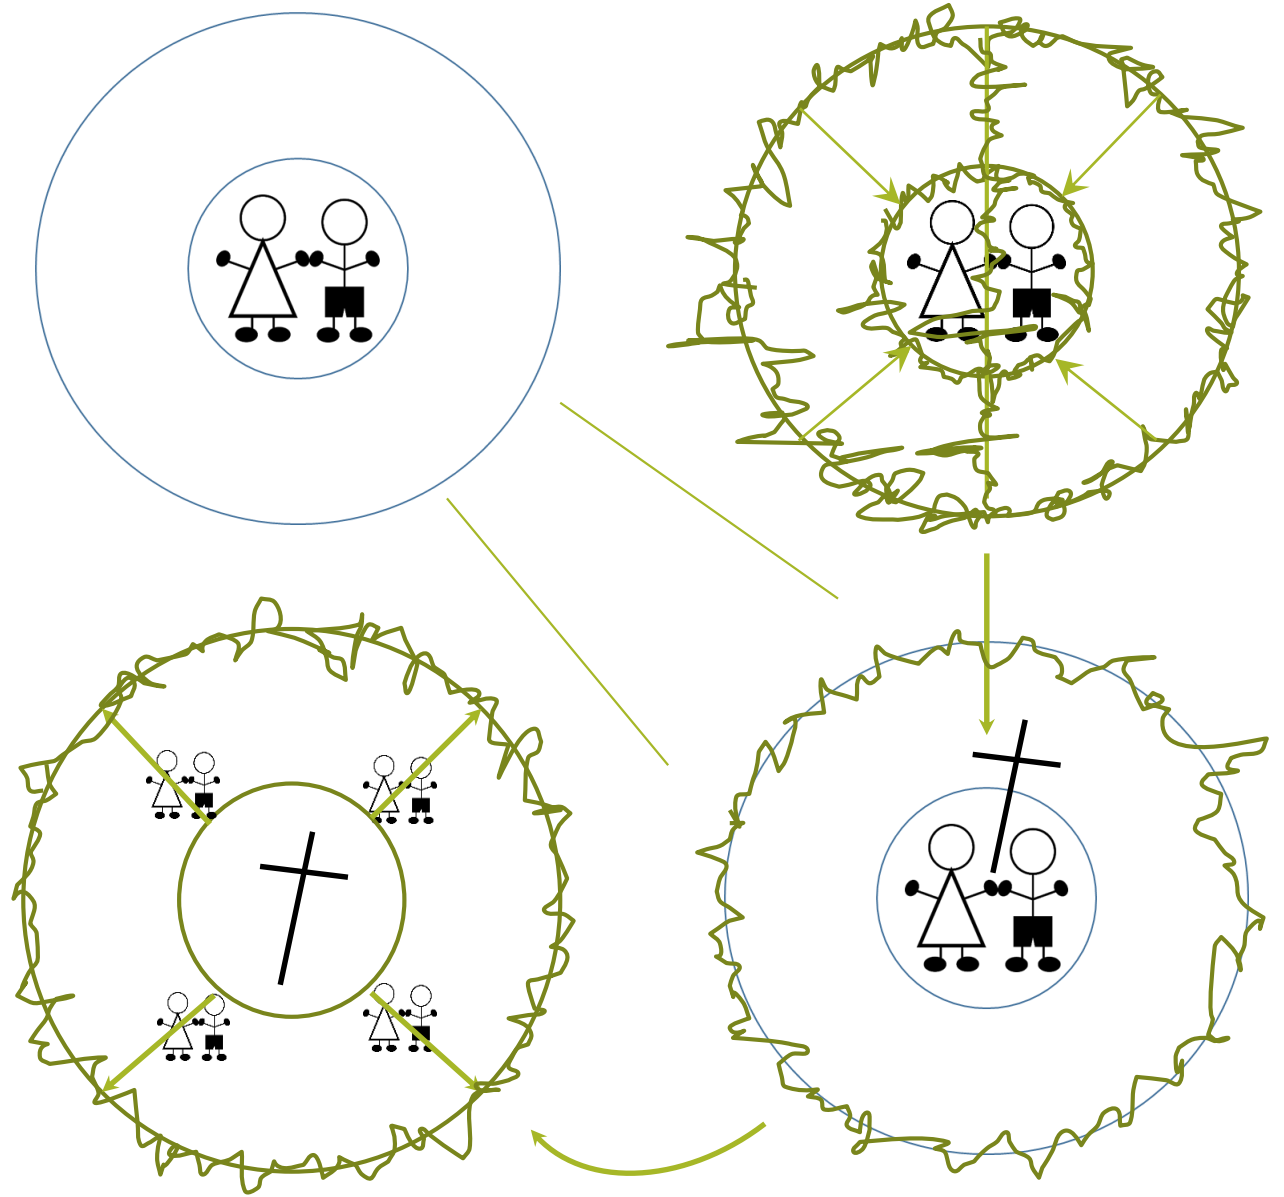

Sent Together to Heal

- Shalom
- Peace with
 - God
 - Self
 - Others
 - Creation

Only Through Jesus

- We are part of the problem
- We need to be “inoculated” to be able to work in the world.

Proverbs 11:10

- When the righteous prosper the city rejoices. When the wicked perish there are shouts of joy.